

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, November 14, 1901.

THE laying of the corner-stone of the new building for the academy will record an event in the history of Hazel Green that generations yet unborn will point to with pride. The articles there deposited may not again be seen by the eye of man for a half century or more, during which time the advance in education will have been wonderful, and the people who then view the various articles that are today sealed up in that corner-stone may have cause to smile at the situation of this time. We are proud to know that among the articles deposited today will be two copies of THE HERALD, one bearing date of the event and the other a copy of the boom edition which inaugurated the current volume. While the people of today do not appreciate the paper as they ought those who are present when these copies are taken from their repository in years to come will realize the importance of the efforts we are now making and mayhap sympathize with us in the struggle we are making to give to their ancestors a first-class country paper. The improvements in the art preservative today are such that in the time which elapses between now and the date of the demolition of the building we today dedicate our paper may appear to those who then look upon it as do the efforts of the early printers to the people of this generation. The articles that are deposited in the corner-stone should include a roll of honor—that is, a list of those who contributed to the purchase of the site for the academy, that the generations yet to enter upon the stage of action may know that these people had an interest in the welfare of all who were to come after them. On the whole the event is one that will mark a new era in the cause of education in Eastern Kentucky, and the building of which this is the corner-stone will stand as a monument to the memory of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions and to those of our citizens who fostered the enterprise. We are proud that it is our privilege to be represented, both by our paper and as a contributor to the cause, and the young man and young woman of that day and generation will know that years before the era of their birth the friends of today looked forward to the future and gave of their means that this school should be perpetuated for them and their children and children's children. And may Hazel Green academy, known today as "the cheapest and best school in Eastern Kentucky," grow in grace even unto the tenth generation, and may the principal, Prof. W. H. Cord, live to a green old age to enjoy the laurels he has so faithfully fought for and then been crowned with and at the last be gathered to his reward. A partial list of articles that is to be deposited follows:

CHARLEY SUBLETT is elected by about 500 majority and Jesse Morris gets there by 1,000, is the latest information we can get. Kentucky returned an old time democratic majority on the 5th inst., and in some of the republican strongholds their calculations were knocked into a cocked-hat. Pike county, for instance, which has nearly always been found in the republican column, changed front this time and sends a democrat to represent her interests in the general assembly. Pike is one of the border counties, and borders on West Virginia which is rank with republicanism. But she has become enlightened sufficiently to realize that her proper place is with the democrats and the result is that she falls into line.

READ Gov. Beckham's letter to Gov. Durbin of Indiana, the figurehead who holds the chair of chief executive in that state, but who is handled by his henchmen as the whipper-in of England handles his hounds. Our governor skins the Indiana man and exposes his cowardly carcass in all its corruption. And he is backed in all he says by the official records. Durbin is lacking in backbone, or he would have the manhood to turn over Taylor and Finley. He knows they are criminals, and by his refusal to deliver them over he becomes a party to the conspiracy.

MEMBERS of the administration are much disturbed by the official news from the Philippines, and one of them said to a friend a day or two ago: "I wish that we were well rid of the islands." Doubtless there are others who think the same way. Not only are bushwhacking parties of Filipinos almost constantly butchering small parties of our soldiers, but troubles of various sorts are increasing, instead of decreasing, in the portions of the islands that are under civil government. A native of Manila, who holds office under the U. S. military government of that city and is now in Washington, openly says that the only way the United States can successfully govern the Philippines for a long time to come is by military force.

REAR ADMIRAL SCHLEY says he will get in all his witnesses, including himself this week. Everything has been going his way for the past week and he is a "jolly tar" for a fact.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM'S LETTER

To Gov. Durbin of Indiana, Answering Indiana's Excuse for An Executive Torsely.

In addressing Governor Durbin, Governor Beckham says: "Sir—Your refusal to honor requisitions some time ago sent you by me asking for the extradition of W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley, fugitives from justice from this state, charged with being accessories to the murder of William Goebel, was not unexpected, but the remarkable letter was with which you accompanied the return of the papers is indeed a surprise to me, and I sincerely regret the necessity of this reply.

"It is true, so I have been reliably informed, that you incurred campaign obligations which committed you to these two valuable adjuncts to your political fortunes, and that they had been promised immunity from arrest under requisitions from Kentucky authorities, in the event of your election as governor.

"This information has been confirmed by your conduct and by the complete sense of protection under which these two men seem to have rested since your incumbency of office. You are at least entitled to credit for having faithfully carried out your reputed agreement with them, however, and in doing so you violated your oath of office and brought discredit upon the high position you hold.

"But even with this understanding of your embarrassing position, confronted as you were, on one side by law and justice and on the other by a miserable political bargain, I could not believe you would so far forget the dignity and obligations of your office and the courteous relations that exist among chief executives of various states, as to go out of your way to offer gratuitous insult to the people of Kentucky and to cast reflection upon the courts and public officials of the state.

"If these slanderous charges had come from you as one individual, then they would be treated with silent contempt, as they so justly deserve, but as they come from you as the governor of a great state, I shall not hesitate to hold you up to public scorn and show how unjust and unfounded are the willful and inexcusable misrepresentations in your letter.

"Passing on from showing how you have disregarded the constitution and law of your country, I will proceed to show how you have perverted the record in the recent trial of Caleb Powers and sought by such action to bring discredit upon an honorable and upright judge, whose life of public service has been unstained by a single dishonorable act, and whose character as a man and as a jurist stands unimpeached among the good people of his state.

"You criticize the recent trial of Powers and denounce Judge Cantrell for his instructions to the jury. You say in your letter that he instructed it 'that it might convict on the testimony of one alleged accomplice, if that testimony was corroborated by that of another alleged accomplice; that it might convict the defendant for the act of another man, to which the defendant never agreed, etc.' 'To show how untrue the statement is, I produce from the record the exact instruction of the Judge in that case on this point: 'Eighth—The jury cannot convict the defendant upon the testimony of an accomplice or accomplices unless the testimony be corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense, and corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows that the offense was committed and the circumstances thereof.'

"Is this a manly way to attack anyone? Is it right and proper to manufacture evidence to blacken, if possible, his character? 'You insinuate, too, that the Judge had been influenced in his trials of these cases by his aspirations as a candidate for the United States senate. If what rumor speaks is true, you are not above suspicion in that respect yourself, and the rancorous spirit of your letter shows that you are making a bid for the support of the implacable and radicals in your own party, with a view to that end. I doubt the wisdom of your policy to secure such an honor.'

Emulate His Example.

Willie Swango this week shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati, consigning them to W. R. Crawford & Co., commission men of that city, whose ad. appears in our paper. If all of our people worked on the same principle that Mr. Swango does THE HERALD would never lack for advertising patronage. He ships more hogs than any man in the mountains, but he will not ship to a man who thinks too little of his business to advertise in his (Mr. Swango's) home paper. Crawford & Co., keep their ad. in THE HERALD and in consequence keep the trade of Mr. Swango which pays them very handsomely on their investment. He patronized them because they had an ad. in our paper, found them fair and square, and has continued with them. He says, indeed, that as long as they advertise they shall have his business or a good share of it, at least. Why don't other friends of the paper do as Willie does? They would profit by it and it would certainly help us.

ATTENTION, LOT-OWNERS

Sidewalks Must Now Be Built!

There are a number of sidewalks in the town only partly built, or badly built, which must be completed according to specifications on file in the Secretary's book. The matter of building walks or pavements, has been kept quiet, pending the decision in the McNabb case in the Court of Appeals. Now, as it has been shown that the Board of Trustees has sole control of the building of sidewalks, it will be expected that all walks be put in first-class condition at once. There will be no "dilly-dallying" any more. Property owners who have been ordered to build sidewalks may call upon the clerk, C. B. Rose, for specifications.

ABOUT THE MONTHLY WORLD.

THE MONTHLY WORLD is a 32-page Magazine with colored cover. It is copiously illustrated with pen drawings and half-tone reproductions of photographs. The illustrations are the result of the best artistic skill, aided by all the latest printing press appliances, making a magazine unrivaled in the quality of its contents and the beauty of its appearance.

Each issue contains stories of romance, love, adventure, travel; stories of fiction and fact; stories of things quaint and curious, gathered together from all over the world; the results of scientific research, and interesting editorial reviews. It numbers among its contributors the leading literary men and women of the day. Its comic pages will present the work of famous comic artists. There will be funny paragraphs and pictures.

A feature each month will be the large first page portrait of the most famed man or woman of the moment in the public eye.

In collecting and preparing for publication the literary matter and art subjects for the Monthly World no expense is spared. It is one of the most attractive publications issued from the great city of New York. It furnishes high-class and widely varied entertainment to many thousand readers throughout North America.
